

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF MINNESOTA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

TERRY JON MARTIN,

Defendant.

Case No. 23-cr-193 (PJS/LIB)

PROTECTIVE ORDER

Upon consideration of the Motion for Stipulated Protective Discovery Order [Docket No. 16], IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that:

1. The United States will include in its discovery file, or otherwise make available, law enforcement reports (excluding evaluative material of matters such as possible defenses and legal strategies), and evidence or existing summaries of evidence in the custody of the United States Attorney's Office which provide the basis for the case against the Defendant. The file will include Rule 16, Brady, and Jencks Act materials of which the United States Attorney's Office is aware and possesses according to applicable statutes and case law. Should the Defendant become aware of any Brady material not contained in the standard discovery file, Defendant will notify the United States Attorney's Office of such materials in order that the information may be obtained. The United States will make rolling disclosures consistent with the Second Amended Arraignment Order (Doc. 18). The United States will provide the discovery electronically and any cost of printing shall be the responsibility of the Defendant.

2. The United States may redact or withhold information from the open discovery file for security concerns or to protect an ongoing investigation. This does not preclude the Defendant from requesting in camera review of such material by the Court, upon proper showing, in order to determine whether or not material withheld should be disclosed in accordance with Fed. R. Crim. P. 16. Where the United States withholds information from its standard discovery file, notice of the withholding, along with a general description of the type of material withheld, will be included in the discovery file. Except for material subject to disclosure by Rule 16, Brady, the Jencks Act, or other applicable law, the discovery file will not at this time contain evidence which the United States has decided to use solely for impeachment of defense witnesses or rebuttal evidence. It will not include evaluative material of matters such as possible defenses and legal strategies or other attorney work product. The United States is authorized to disclose any Defendant's tax information in its file to co-defendants for use consistent with this Order.

3. Personal Identity Information: To expedite the flow of discovery material between the parties, the United States may produce certain Personal Identity Information, as identified in Rule 49.1 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, pursuant to Defendant's discovery requests. The information produced may be subject to the provisions of the Privacy Act, 5 U.S.C. § 552a, or to the provisions of 42 U.S.C. § 1306. The United States may produce these documents unredacted to Defendant's counsel of record. Upon producing these documents, the United States shall designate them as confidential by marking the disc label as "Protected Material – Subject to Court Order." The parties agree that no document will be submitted to the Court, reproduced in any court filing, or presented in open Court unless the document or filing is placed under seal or all Personal Identity Information as identified in Rule 49.1 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure is redacted, or prior approval by the Court obtained.

4. The information in the United States' discovery file may only be used for the limited purpose of discovery and in connection with the above-captioned federal criminal case now pending against the Defendant. Copies of the information provided in discovery shall not be disseminated to or used by any person other than the Defendant's counsel, Defendant's counsel's staff or employees, and any agent or expert retained by Defendant or Defendant's counsel. The information may not be used or disclosed in any proceeding not part of the pending criminal case. Any agent retained or used by the Defendant in preparation for litigation will be advised of this Order by the Defendant, and use of the information by the retained agent will be subject to the terms of the Order. This paragraph does not prohibit the dissemination of disclosed materials between co-Defendants' counsel in this federal criminal case who are subject to this Order. No copies of materials obtained through discovery shall be disseminated to other defendants or their counsel who are not subject to this Order except through motion pleading or the offer of trial and sentencing exhibits.

5. Grand jury testimony (other than that of the Defendant), Jencks Act statements, summary reports of witness statements (other than statements of the Defendant) and any audio and video recordings of the same, and all other discovery material will remain in the sole custody of the party's attorney or the agent working on behalf of the attorney and shall not be left with the Defendant or any third party except as provided in paragraph 4. The prohibition on leaving materials with the Defendant or third party shall not apply to items discoverable under Fed. R. Crim. P. 16 and, to the extent they are intended for use as evidence in case-in-chief at trial, copies of documents, tangible objects, and reports of examinations and tests. Other than for uses associated with representation of the Defendant in the criminal case now pending, the defense shall not photocopy or reproduce grand jury transcripts, Jencks Act statements, summary reports of witness interviews (other than statements of the Defendant) and any audio and video recordings of the same, or exhibits. If counsel for the Defendant is subsequently allowed to withdraw from this case, and a new attorney is appointed or retained, the withdrawing attorney may provide copies of transcriptions, summaries, notes, or dictations of discovery material to the new attorney for Defendant. The new attorney for Defendant shall be subject to the terms of this Order.

6. In exchange for the production by the Government of memoranda of interviews, the Defendant agrees to provide copies of any and all statements of witnesses prepared by or on behalf of the Defendant, if the Defendant intends to call said witnesses at trial, no later than five (5) working days before trial. Such production will be made subject to the same terms and conditions as specified in paragraph 2 above. If statements are obtained four (4) days or less before trial, or during trial, the statements will be disclosed no later than two (2) calendar days before the witnesses testifies. This agreement for production of such materials does not include the production of materials that would constitute an infringement of the attorney-client relationship or reveal confidential communications between the Defendant and his counsel, or evaluative material such as possible defenses and legal strategies or other attorney work product. This term shall not be construed to require reciprocal production of materials greater than that required under the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure.

7. Upon disclosure of the United States' discovery file, Defendant shall be under a continuing obligation to provide disclosure of statements as defined in 18 U.S.C. §§ 3500(e)(1) and (2), and reciprocal discovery under Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(b) and 26.2.

8. A dictated summary of discovery materials is permissible under the terms of this Order, but duplication of materials by video, photography, copy machine, computer scanner, or other means may not be used except for uses associated with representation of the Defendant concerning the criminal case now pending.

9. This Order satisfies the Discovery Conference requirement in Rule 16.1, Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure. The parties agree to undertake good-faith efforts to resolve any disputes between themselves prior to asking the Court to determine or modify any aspect of Rule 16 pretrial disclosure.

10. If any discovery materials outside the scope of Fed. R. Crim. P. 16 are provided to Defendant in violation of this Order, notice of such violation of this provision will be provided to defense counsel in writing or by email. Upon receipt of notice of such violation of this provision, defense counsel shall retrieve any such materials from the Defendant within one week of the receipt of notice of violation, and certify to the United States the retrieval thereof.
